Red River Receives Cisco Partner Award

LEBANON, New Hampshire – June 11, 2008 -- Red River Computer Company received the coveted US Federal "Small Business Partner of the Year" award at the 2008 Cisco Systems® Partner Summit held this year in Honolulu, HI. This award recognizes their effort as the top producing Small Business Value Added Reseller for Cisco in the Federal government marketplace. The award is recognition of Red River's extensive knowledge of Cisco's end-to-end technical solutions and their role as a trusted advisor to their Federal government clients. Red River is a Cisco Premier partner with technology specializations in VPN/Security, Wireless, and Unified Communications.

"We are honored to be recognized by Cisco as their top Small Business Partner of the Year," said Dan McGee, Director of Sales Operations, Red River. "This award demonstrates our focus and commitment to Cisco and how we successfully implement their solutions to meet the mission critical demands of our customers."
